Galerie S:t Petris fjortonde utställning sedan dess tillkomst i september förra året har kallats Sommar Expo 72 . Det är en samlingsutställning , den andra i ordningen , och inte mindre än 27 olika konstnärer ställer ut , de flesta bosatta i Sverige . Vissa av dem är redan kända , medan andra debuterar .

Utställningen anordnas inte efter ett speciellt tema ; verken är med andra ord inte specialgjorda för detta evenemang , utan varje utställare visar ett eller ett par verk , som är representativa för just honom .

Idén med samlingsutställningen är att alla , yngre såväl som äldre , oberoende konstriktning , ska kunna finna gemenskap på ett enkelt , vänskapligt och icke-institutionellt sätt , utan kommersiella intressen från galleriets sida . Galerie S:t Petri vill försöka arbeta som ett kulturellt forum i miniatyr , presentera olika tendenser , riktningar inom konsten . Med Sommar Expo 72 hoppas galleriet , att det tagit ytterligare ett steg mot målet .

Utställningen pågår under tiden 2 - 21 juni .

Pressvisningen äger rum torsdagen den 1 juni kl. 14.00 .

Galerie S:t Petri's fourteenth exhibition since its opening in September last year has been titled Summer Expo 72.

It is a group exhibition, the second of its kind, featuring works by no fewer than 27 different artists, most of whom are based in Sweden. Some of them are already well-known, while others are debuting.

The exhibition is not organized around a specific theme; nor are the works specially created for this event. Instead, each exhibitor showcases one or a couple of pieces that are representative of their own style.

The idea behind the group exhibition is that everyone—both younger and older artists, regardless of artistic orientation—should find a common ground in a simple, friendly, and non-institutional way, without commercial interests from the gallery's side.

Galerie S:t Petri aims to function as a cultural forum in miniature, presenting different tendencies and directions in art. With Summer Expo 72, the gallery hopes to have taken yet another step toward achieving this goal.

The exhibition runs from June 2 to June 21.

The press preview will take place on Thursday, June 1, at 2:00 PM.

27 Artists Exhibit Simultaneously at Lund Gallery

LUND: Nearly 30 artists are participating in the large group exhibition at Galerie S:t Petri in Lund, running from June 2 to June 21. This is the gallery's fourteenth exhibition since its opening in September last year. The exhibition is titled "Summer Expo '72" and is the second group exhibition organized by the gallery.

No fewer than 27 Swedish and international artists are exhibiting their works. Some of them are already well-known, while others are debuting.

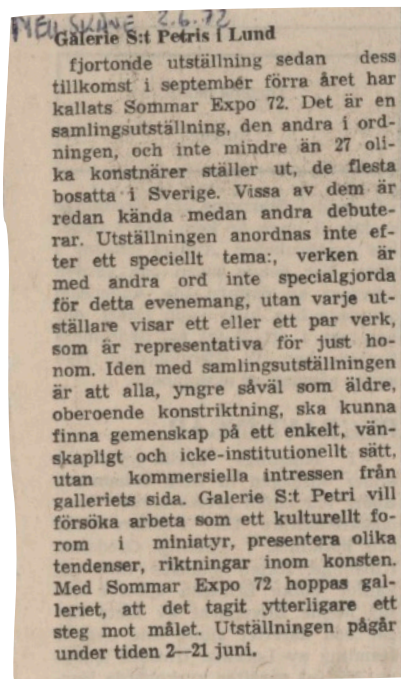

The exhibition is not built around a specific theme; nor were the works specially created for this event. Instead, each artist is showing one or several pieces that are representative of their individual style.

The idea of the group exhibition is to allow everyone—both younger and older artists, regardless of artistic direction—to come together in a simple, friendly, and non-institutional way.

Galerie S:t Petri aims to function as a cultural forum in miniature, presenting different artistic trends and directions. With Summer Expo '72, the gallery hopes to have taken another significant step toward this goal.

The participating artists in the expo include:

Douglas Andréén, Sven Andrell, John Bellany, Jean Billgren, Åke Egvad, Birgitta Fahlbeck, Lennart Gummeson, Ole Hammeleff, Christer Hellgren, Knud Holar, Indira Johnson, Karl Jonnson, Erik Julius, Paul Kiraly, Jamey Kirkland, Brita af Klercker, Anne-Merete Nielsen, Gunnar Norrman, Greta Offrell, Terry Paster, Alberto Quintanilla, Helge Rex, Ludwig Schmeisser, Poul Skelbye, Erland Svensson-de thou, Anders Tosse, and Lajos Tóth.

Summer Expo 72: A Step Toward the Goal?

The exhibition is not arranged around a specific theme, nor are the works specially created for the event. Instead, each exhibitor presents one or a couple of pieces representative of their individual style.

The idea behind the group exhibition is that everyone—both younger and older artists, regardless of artistic direction—should be able to find a sense of community in a simple, friendly, and non-institutional manner, free from commercial interests on the gallery's part.

Galerie S:t Petri aims to function as a cultural forum in miniature, presenting different trends and directions in art. With Summer Expo 72, the gallery hopes to have taken yet another step toward this goal.

The exhibition runs from June 2 to June 21.
